banned picketing. Walkout called by union officials because they were not allowed to enter certain buildings to see their union members for security reasons.

Discussions held and later [] was allowed to visit; however, he was not satisfied and wanted full access to the AP Facility.

On 24 Jan 1964 negotiations between [] accepted terms offered and signed [] No-access clause for special areas but union business managers allowed to interview union members in A/P conference room whenever necessary.
